Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or dis-Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose. Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-

Listen Just A Moment

To be known as a careful business man is worth while. I would impress this upon your mind, and add another maxim which I pray you heed and be wise. It is this: "Land constitutes the real basis of all values." Corporations may fail, houses may burn, bonds may prove worthless, and "the fool and his money soon part," but if you own as much as 200 acres of land in Texas your wife can hold that for a HOME against the world.

The BATTLE for a home is growing fiercer every day. Don't spend two much time listeningbuy now and laugh later when prices have advanced.

World Sermon Preacher Tells of a Visit to a Catholic Learning Place.

Herbert S. Bigelow, Pastor Vine Street Congressional church, Cincinnati. O., said Sunday, in part:

The parochial and the public schools stand for different theories born afflicted with of education, concerning which a man may have a preference without being a bigot.

One may hold to the latter view may disapprove of that spirit of authority on which the Mother church is founded without harboring in his heart that worse spirit of intolerance from which the world has suffered.

I visited, recently, one of the parochial schools of our city. It was plain that the sister loved the children and put her heart in the work. So did the primary teacher in the public school near by, which I visited for the sake of comparison. One wore the garb of the nun. The other was neatly clad in blue. But I forgot the dress in either case, for the smiles of the children were reflected in the faces of these teachers. The garb was different but the heart was the

In the parochial school, when the clock struck ten, I heard seyenty little child voices sing:

"Holy Mary, Mother of God! Pray for us sinners and in the hour of our death."

This prayer had a stange sound on these baby lips, for the sparkling eyes and fresh, pure faces were not those of sinners and they

And I remember friends of mine. some of the most single-hearted and truest men that ever lived, who have come out of the parochial schools and I determined that I would let their lives teach me the good in their religion.

Then I noted the reverence of the Catholic children which was indeed grateful. Moreover, I said, the spirit of devotion exemplified by the good sister is always, in any garb whatsoever, a hallowed thing, Sold by and I thought also, of the men and women, sincere worshippers, who bend before the mystic altars in the calm cathedral, and I fancied of God and the eternal verities than one can find in the glare of Reason's Temple.

So there came to me a feeling of brotherhood which somehow bridged the chasm of the creeds. and I feel in my protestant heart that there was a larger church to which we all belonged. Then I Arnold:

An Appeal to the Ladies.

(Panhandle papers please copy.)

Will the ladies of the towns and country spare me a few moments of their time? Some five weeks ago I made a call to the men through the Herald to form a Foresters Association. In response to this call not more than twenty-five men sent in their names (all very nice men however). The Herald kept this request before the people week after week-and in addition said many good things in way of encouragement. I am not willing with this small number to make a call for an organization until I have given the mothers and their daughters a chance to join us. With them in our ranks, such a thing as
